

Smothering Spells

"I suffered for nine or ten years. Had spells of smothering, finally went into convulsions. Dr. Miles' Nervine brought complete relief, and I believe saved my life."

MRS. ROSA BONNER, 185 N. 18th St., Birmingham, Ala. The blood is the channel through which is transported the nourishment that sustains life. When the circulation is poor, your vitality is low, your nervous system exhausted, and you are weak and debilitated. You can restore nervous energy by taking

Dr. Miles' Nervine. Its strengthening influence upon the nervous system gives it power to send life-giving blood through the veins. The first bottle will benefit; if not, the drug will return your money.

A shocking fatality occurred at Miles Pond, Monday morning, when in his play Eugene Carpenter, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carpenter, fell and injured himself internally to such an extent that he lived but a few minutes. Eugene Louis Carpenter was born in Waterford, May 9, 1905, the third son of Frank and Bessie (Stacy) Carpenter.

He was a very attractive little fellow and his parents are prostrated with grief at his untimely and shocking death. He leaves two older brothers and a baby sister to mourn the loss of a dear little mate. He possessed an unusually sunny disposition and his death makes a vacancy in the home that none other can fill. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved parents and grandparents. Funeral services were held from the house Tuesday at one o'clock, conducted by Rev. M. H. Smith. The interment was in the new part of the cemetery. Many friends of the family from St. Johnsbury and Concord attended the funeral.

"Jack," as he is always called, left Sutton in 1866, 43 years ago. He attended church Sunday, where he went as a boy, but saw very few that he knew or that knew him. The writer well remembers him and his brothers, Bradbury and George, who are physicians in New York and Brooklyn. It seems but a few years ago when Dea. Richardson and wife, four sons and two daughters, were constantly at church, if possible. If they could not get there with a team in March or April, the deacon would come on snowshoes if he could do no better. He was always in his place at church and in the Sunday school. The deacon and his wife and two daughters have passed away, but the four sons are yet living, one at West Burke, the other three as mentioned above.
